No Car, No Problem.

Leave the car at home. The only form of transportation you need in Breckenridge is you. The best way to explore Breckenridge is by walking our historic Main Street which is in walking distance of most of the town's lodging. Access the mountain in minutes with the free gondola to the base of Peak 8 or bus throughout town on our free convenient buses.

Getting to Breckenridge

Breckenridge is located in the central Rocky Mountains of Colorado, 90 miles west of Denver. Easily accessible from Denver International Airport (DEN) and the Colorado Spring Airport (COS), both airports are served by most major airlines nationwide and internationally. Choose to fly and shuttle to the resort, or opt for a scenic drive from your hometown.

Breckenridge is easy to access, and even easier to explore once you arrive. Most lodging properties offer free shuttles and are within close proximity to Main Street or the mountain. With free public transit and shuttle services Breckenridge is easy to get around without a car.
